Adult Support Program

The Hazeltons, Witset, Smithers, Houston, Lakes District and Stuart Nechako Regions

What is the Adult Support Program (Community Living)?

Our team at Thomas Robinson Consulting Ltd is dedicated to providing each adult with an individualized program that is goal based and community oriented. We focus on life skill development and building each adults individual capacity towards further independence. Our priority is to support individuals to develop community networks while building on their strengths, capability and resiliency. The goal for all is community inclusion.

Services will include mentoring and direct support with focus on:

- Social skills
- Life skills
- Recreation
- Independence & Transition
- Adult defined SMART (Specific, Measurable, Achievable, Relevant & Time Bound) goals that reflect their individual needs, values and communities.
- Meeting individuals “where they are” in the community and location they feel the most comfortable.
- Risk reduction and prevention while supporting safe and healthier options.
- Developing capacity for problem solving skills and a solution-oriented approach.
- Assisting adults in continuing their education, resume building and job hunting, securing housing and planning for their future.
